ABOUT

Karin has more than 20 years of experience in corporate management in both domestic and global arenas, including a Fortune 500 company in the UK and Inc. 500/5000 company in the US. Her experience spans coaching and mentoring, leadership and career development, as well as talent and performance management in the logistics, telecommunications and hospitality industry.

Karin's diverse background in North America, United Kingdom and Germany makes her a perfect partner to assist clients in leading high-performing multicultural teams. She asks thought-provoking questions to uncover limiting beliefs, helps clients create practical plans with win-win outcomes, and become inspiring and successful leaders.

She has a hospitality diploma and a variety of certifications. Her knowledge and expertise earned her the status of trusted advisor in any business partnership and as a speaker and facilitator.

Karin's purpose is 'Making a Difference' and her motto is 'Carpe Diem,' which is evident in her love of travelling and diverse cultures, tasting regional food, and photography.

She believes that everyone can design their life and inspires leaders to become their authentic, positive, and confident selves.
